System for counseling on garbage separation and disposal rules

People who do not adhere to the garbage separation and disposal rules may be subject to investigation/instruction in accordance with the city's Act on Proper Waste Disposal and Recycling Procedures.

① Open-bag investigation

City officials will investigate any breaches in the rules and identify the offender

② Instructions

They will then instruct the offender to adhere to garbage separation/disposal rules

③ Official order

If the offender still fails to observe the rules even after being instructed, a legally binding order will be issued

④ Fines, etc.

If another breach is detected within one year after the issuance of the order, a fine (2,000 yen) is levied

Ban on taking resources, etc. from waste disposal station

Pursuant to the Act on Proper Waste Disposal and Recycling Procedures, it is prohibited to take resources and/or incombustible waste from the waste disposal station.

Fines, etc.

- It is prohibited for those other than people designated by the city to collect and take resources and/or incombustible waste which has been placed in the waste disposal station
- There are fines, etc. (200,000 yen or less) for those who violate this rule.

If you spot any transgression being committed, please contact the Environmental Center in charge.

① Date/location ② Detailed description of the transgression (types of resources taken) ③ License plate number, description of the offender, etc.
