Telephone Interpreting Service

A telephone interpreting service is provided by the Chiba City International Association when an interpreter is required for receiving city administration services at the city hall, ward office, etc., or communicating with schools, etc.

● Service Hours

The available languages and service hours are the same as the Daily Consultation Services offered by the Association. Please check the Association's home page for more details.

(<http://www.ccia-chiba.or.jp/>)

● Eligible Institutions

The telephone interpreting service can be used for administrative services at the city hall, ward office, health and welfare centers, etc., as well as at municipal elementary and junior high schools, day care centers, etc.

Interpretation involving specialized content such as medical treatment at the hospital, classroom lessons, etc., cannot be provided.

● How to use the Telephone Interpreting Service

- (1) Call the Chiba City International Association (TEL 043-245-5750).
- (2) Tell the staff member the phone number you want to call, hang up the phone and wait to be called back.
- (3) The International Association staff will make the call.
- (4) The International Association staff will hear the details of your consultation, convey that to the city administrative staff, and listen to the administrative response. The International Association staff will convey that response to you.
