

Let us know your opinions on studying at public junior high night schools

Chiba City is considering setting up a public junior high night school, and is gathering people's opinions regarding studying at a such a school. We would appreciate your answering the questionnaire on the back.

What kind of place is it?

- ★ People who could not, for several reasons, finish their compulsory education, or who wish to retake classes due to school absenteeism can study there (regardless of nationality).
- ★ 5 days a week, the students come to school in the evening and learn all subjects taught in junior high.
- ★ Students also learn the necessary Japanese for studying.
- ★ There are also school events such as off campus learning.
- ★ Classes are taught by a licensed public junior high school teacher
- ★ There is no tuition fee.
- ★ Finishing prescribed subjects will result in graduating from junior high.
- ★ In Chiba Prefecture, there are public junior high night schools in Ichikawa City and Matsudo City.
